Archetype

Casa Flores

Archetype team - 29/03/2024

The house is introverted away from the suburban street front and extroverted towards the view of the ocean on the eastern side. Thus, the structure layers from a blank wall that defines the facade to an open space defined by a roof supported on slender steel columns on the back. The house is sunken half level to further accomplish this goal and follow the existing contours.

Δείτε ολόκληρη την παρουσίαση στην ενότητα Αρχιτεκτονική, ΕΔΩ.

Architectural Design: FUSTER + Architects - Nataniel Fúster, Heather Crichfield, Luis R. Albaladejo, José Pagán